SCEA Members Not affected Yet

By Executive Director Gary Stucky

SCEA members are not immediately facing the same types of challenges as the brothers and sisters in Yuba County, but that does not mean that at the County is completely bullet proof from the current economic situation. Sutter County is more insulated then many public agencies, but the economy continues to be unstable and the State's actions to resolve their own budgetary problems could result in problems for Sutter County beyond what the County is able to weather.
